MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

In a world increasingly marked by conflict, uncertainty, ecological crisis, and rapid technological change, the need for thoughtful dialogue and collaborative leadership has never been more urgent. Peace is not merely the absence of war; it is the presence of justice, empathy, mutual respect, and a shared commitment to the common good. It is in this spirit that we gather for the Little Angels Model United Nations, LAMUN, under the deeply relevant theme, "From Turmoil to Tranquility."

Model United Nations is far more than an academic simulation. It is a living platform where young minds learn to analyse complex global issues, honour diverse perspectives, negotiate with wisdom, and seek solutions through diplomacy rather than discord. These are not skills confined to a conference room; they are the essential qualities of the leaders our world urgently needs.

History has shown, time and again, that lasting peace is built not through force but through dialogue. Every major global challenge, poverty, climate change, humanitarian crisis, public health, or international security, demands cooperation across nations and cultures. As delegates step into the roles of world leaders, they discover that true leadership rests on informed decision making, ethical responsibility, compassion, and the courage to place humanity above personal or political interest.

At Little Angels Group of Schools, we believe education must prepare students not only for successful careers but for meaningful citizenship in an interconnected world. We are committed to nurturing young people who think critically, communicate with respect, lead with integrity, and contribute positively to society. LAMUN embodies this commitment, transforming classrooms into arenas of global understanding and responsible action.

I encourage every delegate to participate with confidence, intellectual curiosity, and an open mind. Speak with conviction, listen with humility, challenge ideas with grace, and remember that every meaningful conversation carries the power to bridge difference. The resolutions you draft today may be fictional, but the values you cultivate, empathy, cooperation, resilience, and hope, will shape the real world of tomorrow.

My heartfelt appreciation to the organising committee, faculty mentors, participating schools, and every student whose dedication has made this conference possible. May this gathering inspire each one of us to become ambassadors of peace and architects of a more compassionate, inclusive, and harmonious world.

I wish LAMUN 2026 every success, and hope it ignites conversations that continue long after these committee rooms fall silent.

THE PRINCIPAL

The true purpose of education extends far beyond academic achievement. It lies in shaping individuals who possess the wisdom to question, the courage to lead, and the compassion to understand those whose experiences differ from their own. In a world where differences often divide, education must empower young people to become thoughtful listeners and confident changemakers.

The theme of LAMUN 2026, From Turmoil to Tranquility, reminds us that every lasting transformation begins with a willingness to engage in meaningful dialogue. Peace is not created overnight, nor is it the responsibility of governments alone. It begins with individuals who choose respect over prejudice, collaboration over competition, and understanding over assumption.

It is with great pleasure that we welcome delegates, faculty, and schools from across the region to join us for this 9th edition of LAMUN. Your presence will enrich this conference, and we will be honoured to host you as we come together to debate, deliberate, and imagine a more peaceful world. At Little Angels Group of Schools, we strive to create learning experiences that inspire curiosity, resilience, and global awareness, and LAMUN will reflect these aspirations in every sense.

When you enter your respective committees, I encourage you to participate with integrity, confidence, and an open mind. Let your arguments be guided by knowledge, your decisions by empathy, and your conduct by mutual respect.

I extend my sincere appreciation to the organising committee and faculty members for their dedication in bringing LAMUN 2026 to life, and I warmly welcome all participating schools and delegates to be part of this experience. I look forward to seeing each of you rise to the occasion, to debate with conviction, listen with sincerity, and lead with compassion. May LAMUN 2026 be the beginning of a journey that inspires you to become effective communicators, capable leaders, and compassionate global citizens.

THE CONVENOR

It is with great pleasure that Little Angels High School invites you to the 9th edition of its Model United Nations Conference - LAMUN 2026, to be held on the 5th & 6th December 2026.

Conceived as more than a conventional academic exercise, the conference seeks to serve as a forum for rigorous inquiry, measured debate, and meaningful engagement with the complexities of contemporary global affairs. At a time when systems of governance and international cooperation are being tested in unprecedented ways, the value of thoughtful and informed dialogue is both evident and urgent.

The theme of this year's conference, From Turmoil to Tranquility reflects an effort to engage directly with the shifting contours of the modern international order. It invites participants to consider not only the challenges that define the present moment, but also the frameworks through which they may be addressed.

Delegates will participate in carefully designed committees that mirror the dynamics of international diplomacy. In doing so, they will be expected to move beyond surface-level discourse and engage with competing perspectives in a manner that is analytical, deliberate, and constructive. The emphasis throughout will be on clarity of thought, strength of argument, and the capacity to negotiate across differences.

In an era shaped by technological acceleration, environmental strain, and geopolitical volatility, the ability to think critically and act judiciously is indispensable. This conference is intended as a space in which those capacities may be meaningfully exercised and developed.

The proceedings will be hosted at Little Angels High School, Gwalior where the Secretariat is committed to ensuring a well-organised and intellectually rewarding experience for all participants.

Your presence would add considerable value to the discussions and contribute to the overall quality of the conference. We would be grateful for your confirmation of participation at your earliest convenience.

Further details regarding registration and logistics, including accommodation for outstation delegates, will be shared in due course.

We look forward to welcoming you.

THE SECRETARY GENERAL

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to LAMUN 2026, hosted by Little Angels High School, Gwalior.

This year's theme, "From Turmoil to Tranquillity," highlights the importance of dialogue, cooperation, and understanding in a world facing conflict, humanitarian crises, and growing inequality. LAMUN brings together young minds to discuss these challenges and explore how thoughtful diplomacy can help resolve them.

As delegates, you will represent nations and organisations, research complex issues, debate with confidence, and work together to draft practical solutions. Our Executive Board will guide and challenge you throughout, ensuring a rewarding and intellectually stimulating experience for every participant.

I encourage you to come well prepared, speak with conviction, and remain open to perspectives different from your own. I hope you leave LAMUN 2026 with a deeper understanding of global affairs, greater confidence, and friendships that last well beyond the conference.

Having grown with LAMUN as a delegate, an Executive Board member, and now as Secretary-General, I have seen how much this experience can shape the way young people think, speak, and lead. I look forward to welcoming you to LAMUN 2026.
